UNITED STATES INTELLIGENCE BOARD

Validity Study on NIE 51-60

The Outlook for India

dated 25 October 1960

The following validity study on NIE 51-60 was noted by the Intelligence Board on 31 May 1962 (USIB-M-217, item 10. c.):

The basic political and economic judgments in this estimate have held up well. However, NIE 51-60 failed to anticipate that no progress would be made in settling the Kashmir dispute and that relations with Pakistan would deteriorate as a consequence.

Validity Study on NIE 53-59

The Outlook for Afghanistan

dated 22 September 1959

The following validity study on NIE 53-59 was noted by the Intelligence Board on 7 March 1962 (USIB-M-203, item 9. c.):

The estimates on the Afghan internal situation in NIE 53-59 have been proven valid and we believe there is little of importance that could be added to them at the present time. NIE 53-59 was sound also in all its estimates on Afghanistan's international position with one exception: we estimated correctly that Afghan-Pakistani relations would probably deteriorate further during the period of the estimate, but added that we believed the odds were against a closure of the border. The border was closed in September 1961.
